FREE CHAUTAUQUA SHOULD BRING MANY HERE NEXT WEEK

Geoffrey Morgan, Head of Agricultural Work in State, Will Speak Monday Evening at Local Free Chautauqua—Entire Program Is Attractive.

Much interest is being displayed in all parts of the county and in the edge of all surrounding counties in the free Farmers' Chautauqua to be held at Beechwood park in this city the first three days of next week. The entire program is very attractive and some of the best posted, men and women in the state on subjects vital to the residents of the rural sections of the state are to bring messages.

An announcement was made this morning by County Agent George Kirk which should bring many more people to Monday afternoon's session than had planned to come. This announcement is that Geoffrey Morgan, head of the Agricultural work, state and national, in the State of Kentucky, will be the chief speaker on Monday afternoon's program. Mr. Morgan will speak at 4 o'clock and he needs no introduction to the people of this section. Those who have heard him speak will take this opportunity of hearing him again. He is an excellent speaker with a message that every farmer and every one interested in farming should hear. Along with Mr. Morgan, the male quartet from Kentucky University, said to be the best male quartet in the state, will sing some beautiful numbers.

The chautauqua tent, which will be pitched probably Saturday at Beechwood, should be filled to overflowing at every session of the meeting. All sessions are absolutely free and this should bring the crowds. The two organizations which are financing these meetings have made it possible for the farmers to hear these speakers and they should take advantage of the opportunities offered them.

Remember the chautauqua will be at Beechwood Park Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and every one is welcome and urged to attend.

ABERDEEN WILL HAVE GREAT HOME COMING CELEBRATION

Next Thursday Will Be "Welcome Home Day" in Aberdeen—Soldiers Of Huntington Township To Be Given Glad Hand and Royal Reception.

Next Thursday—August 14—promises to be one of the best days in the history of Aberdeen and Huntington township for on that day all of the fraternal organizations in Aberdeen join in extending a right royal reception to all returned soldier boys of Huntington township.

It is doubtful if there is a spot of rural land in any section of the United States, the same area, that has given as many young men to the American army during the world war as Huntington township did. This old district has always furnished a great many soldiers in each war but in the World War, she broke her previous records and out did herself. Some twenty-five or thirty of the young men of that district did not wait for the draft law to call them but volunteered with the Manchester National Guard Company and yet the township gave its pro rata in the draft as well.

Thursday's program is being worked out in detail by a committee managing the affair. There will be band music and a banquet and Thursday evening a grand ball in honor of the soldiers at the Masonic building.

The entire day will be crowded with interesting features and every soldier in the township has expressed a willingness to attend. The Huntington township men who made the Supreme Sacrifice will have their memories fittingly honored.

RAILROAD STRIKE CONDITION REMAINS CRITICAL ON C. & O.

Only Four Fast Passenger Trains Operating on Main Line—Local Division of the L. & N. Has Not Been Materially Affected as Yet.

The strike of railroad workers over the nation is causing a very serious condition along the main line of the C. & O. railroad and the strike is beginning to be felt in Maysville. The boats are loaded to their limits but yet the general tie-up is being badly felt in most all lines of business and is proving quite inconvenient to the traveling public.

On the C. & O. of Indiana today all passenger service was discontinued, all freight service having been discontinued yesterday and on the main line of the C. & O. through Maysville only four passenger trains are operating, the last of the local trains being removed Thursday night and all freight trains being tied up Thursday. The trains operating are the two daily trains from Cincinnati to Washington, No. 2 and No. 4 and the two westbound trains from Washington to Cincinnati, No. 3 and No. 5. Many of the trains in local service between points in West Virginia and in Kentucky were discontinued late Thursday. The remainder, including the trains between Cincinnati and Huntington, W. Va., and Cincinnati and Ashland, Ky., were discontinued Friday. These conditions will prevail until the men return to work, C. & O. officials said. Every effort will be made, however, to keep the four trains between Cincinnati and Washington in operation.

The Louisville & Nashville railroad, although operating under difficulties because of the strike of its shompen and yard mechanics in Covington and at other points, was maintaining its passenger service Friday. L. & N. officials, however, were unwilling to make any prediction as to how long they could continue full passenger operations.

The strike has not been felt on the Maysville division of the L. & N. as yet except that there are embargoes on freight shipments into certain parts of the south. All freight and passenger trains on this division of the L. & N. were in operation Friday.

All mail except fragile parcel post, which cannot be thrown from a moving train, is being handled over this division of the C. & O. as fast trains are handling it and at stations where the fast trains do not make regular stops, the mail is being dumped at the station.

The Maysville yard crew on the C. & O. and the section men are not working.

SUICIDE NEWS BOY

IS BURIED TODAY

The funeral of Guy Carpenter, blind Cincinnati news boy, who took his own life Wednesday, was held at 11 o'clock this morning at the Red Men's Hall at Bowman Springs, Fleming county and burial was made in the Carpenter grave yard nearby. Carpenter was a native of that section of Fleming county and his body passed through here Thursday en route to the home of his parents. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carpenter, of near Bowman Springs.

FOUR FINE HOGS DIE

Messrs. Kirkland & Lyons, stock dealers, drove nine large hogs to Maysville Thursday to be shipped by boat to the Cincinnati market and placed them in the County Stock Yards. While confined to the stock yards four of the fine animals, each weighing more than 200 pounds, died. The loss is considerable at the present high price of pork.

PURE FOOD INSPECTOR GETS MILK SAMPLES QUIETLY

Close Analysis of Milk Sold to Maysville People is to Be Made Immediately—State Pure Food Inspector Here.

Unannounced Mr. J. W. McFarlin, of Louisville, State Pure Food Inspector, dropped into Maysville Thursday and began at once to purchase samples of milk from local dealers until he had procured samples from every dairy in Mason county which sells milk for human consumption in Maysville.

These samples of milk were today forwarded to state headquarters where a close analysis of the milk will be made and a report mailed to Mr. McFarlin within the next few days. This report will be given the public through the press so that all may know just the condition of the milk furnished by all dairymen in Mason county.

Mr. McFarlin, who is operating under the Pure Food and Drug act, will remain in Maysville a short time making investigations in other foods which are being sold in Maysville.

ANOTHER WANTS DIVORCE

Estil Morgan, of the South Ripley neighborhood, filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court today asking for a divorce from his wife, Clara Morgan. He states that his wife abandoned her home and moved to Ripley, Ohio, where she is now living and that she has refused to live with him. He prays for a divorce from the bonds of matrimony.

ENFORCING AUTO LIGHT LAWS IN MAYSVILLE

True to his promise Chief of Police Ort and his men are enforcing the state law as regards lights on automobiles and in Police Court today there were four who paid fines of $5 and costs for failure to have their lights properly lighted. Operators of automobiles had better see that their tail lights are burning properly in the future.

Although the Maysville Boys' Band is at Ripley today making music for the Ripley fair, they will be back in time for their regular weekly concert at the Municipal Band Stand in Market street this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to hear the band.

RIPLEY FAIR IS ATTRACTING MANY

The Ripley Fair, one of the best fairs in the Ohio Valley, is in full blast and quite a number of Maysville and Mason county people are now attending. The fair is proving bigger and better this year than ever before and in popularity each season.

BAD LEAKS IN WATER MAIN

Bad leaks in the water main on Court street are causing the city officials much worry and it is feared that this beautiful asphalt street will have to be torn up at an early date to make the necessary repairs to the mains as the leaks are getting worse each day.

BAPTISTS OF DISTRICT HOLD GREAT MEETING AT TWOLICK CHURCH

Maysville Men Are Re-elected Officers of the Association Which Will Meet Next Year With the Mt. Pisgah Church in Fleming County.

The annual meeting of the Bracken Association of Baptists held at the Two Lick Baptist church near Germantown was closed Thursday afternoon. In many respects this year's meeting was one of the most successful that the Bracken Baptists have held in recent years.

The most important matter for discussion during the entire meeting was the great "75 million campaign" to be launched by the Baptists of the Southland which is a drive to raise $75,000,000 in five years for the various objects fostered by this denomination. The apportionment of the churches in Bracken Association is $62,000 and Mr. C. S. Kirk, of this city, has been named director of the campaign in Bracken Association. Dr. M. P. Hunt and Mr. J. G. Black, of Louisville, field men for this drive, were in attendance and presented the drive in a most forceful way. Mr. Kirk plans a banquet in this city in the near future when the church chairmen of all 30 churches in this association will meet for a conference.

The Association re-elected all the old officers Mr. T. P. Gaither, Moderator, Prof. W. J. Caplinger, Clerk and Prof. W. T. Berry, Treasurer. It will be noticed that all of the officers are Maysville men.

The District board which has charge of the Mission churches of the district, will meet in this city on Friday, August 22, for the purpose of making mission appropriations for the year. This will be the most important meeting of this body for the entire year.

The next annual meeting of the association will be held on the first Wednesday and Thursday in August 1920, with the Mt. Pisgah Baptist church in Fleming county near Ewing.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMERCIAL TEACHER RESIGNS

Superintendent W. J. Caplinger, of the Maysville City Schools, today received a telegram from Prof. N. S. Culp, who was in charge of the Commercial Department of the Maysville High School last year, extending his resignation from the faculty of the local school. Prof. Culp will teach the commercial course in a Kansas High School during the coming season.

MANAGEMENT OF POPULAR STORE CHANGED TODAY

Mr. Harry C. Curran Becomes Manager of DeNuzie Under the Ownership of Mr. Jacob Thomas—Store Operated on a High Plane.

On the eve of launching a great price reduction sale, Mr. C. E. Dietrich, owner and manager of DeNuzie, the popular book and stationery store in Market street, has sold his entire stock of goods as well as the store and its good will to Mr. Jacob Thomas. The store was closed all day Thursday making inventory and preparation for a change in ownership and this morning the store was opened under the new ownership.

Mr. Thomas has procured the services of Mr. Harry C. Curran, well known Maysville man, to manage DeNuzie. Mr. Curran is not new in this business having had sixteen years experience in a similar store and he takes charge with full knowledge of the business and much knowledge of this particular store having been connected with the former owner. Mr. Curran is one of our most popular citizens and under his management DeNuzie will continue to grow in popularity.

Exactly the same lines as have been handled in this store since its establishment several years ago will be handled under the new management and we bespeak for them much success.

Warrants were served late Thursday on Mrs. Frank Wood living in Eastland, charging her with harboring a vicious dog and permitting it to run at large unaccompanied. It is charged that this dog has bitten three persons living in that neighborhood and the case will be tried before Squire Fred W. Bauer Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. E. Gilkey and children of El Paso, Texas, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Furlong, have returned home. Mrs. Gilkey was accompanied as far as Bardstown, Ky., by her sister, Miss Alma Furlong.

Miss Geneva Pierce, teacher in the Maysville schools, has returned from Oxford, Ohio, where she has been taking a summer course.

COMMITTEE WILL LOOK INTO COST OF WATER SYSTEM IN THIS CITY

Major W. L. Glazier Employed to Give Special Committee Estimate on Worth of Present System and Cost of New Pumping Station, Reservoirs and Mains.

The first meeting of the special committee of City Council appointed to look into the advisability of building a municipal owned water pumping station, reservoirs and distribution system was held in the Council Committee room at the Court House this afternoon at two o'clock.

Major W. L. Glazier, of Newport, former City Engineer, who only a few days ago returned from France where he had served many months as a Major in the Engineer Corps of the United States Army, was present at the request of the committee.

After presenting the situation to Major Glazier and explaining to him the condition which the city faced last week, the committee employed him to make a survey of the condition in general and to make recommendations to them. Major Glazier will investigate the Maysville Water Company's plant and equipment and will place a fair estimate on the worth of the company's holdings here. He will also make investigations and ascertain the probable cost of a complete new plant and reservoirs much larger than those now used by the Maysville Water Company as well as a complete distribution system and the installation of water meters in all homes.

It will probably require several weeks for Major Glazier to ascertain all these facts and complete the necessary figures but they will be presented to the committee at the earliest possible moment. The engineer will return here Monday to begin work.

Except for the employment of this expert engineer the committee transacted no other business.

BOATS LOADED WITH MUCH FREIGHT

Because of the freight embargoes, river packets are loaded to the guards on every trip just now and in many instances the steamers are not able to handle all of the freight given them for this district. The need of more packets in this district of the Ohio river is felt on such occasions and just now the boosters of government barge lines have a splendid point of argument.

TUNES---TIRES

Tires, they are, and tires they be,
Tires for you to come and see,
Seeing you'll buy, it's the tune that counts
You'll get it for nothing, thought the price still mounts.

Maybe you don't like our tune, but then, even at that, we think we are an improvement over the epitaph in the old English churchyard:

"Here lies the body of Thomas Woodhen,
The kindest of husbands and the best of men."

Directly beneath is this explanation:
"His name was Woodcock, but it wouldn't come in rhyme."

But, the fact remains, we have rubber tires to sell. In order to make the fact sink into your brain—double quick—we offered to give you, FREE, with each and every tire, an inner tube. Are you on?

NO NATIONAL PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

We have no national presidential primary in this country—which fact is stated in reply to a correspondent who asks the question, says the Columbus Dispatch. Congress has tried a time or two to pass a law providing for such a primary, but his always failed. In fact, it is generally understood that it will require an amendment to the federal constitution to bring it about.

Many of the states have laws providing primaries for delegates to the national political conventions, but they are not uniform. In Ohio we have a law providing that candidates must state whom they expect to vote for presidential nomination, in the event they are named as delegates at the primary. But this goes much further than the laws of most of the states.

It is admitted that we have a rather cumbersome method of electing the president, but little has been done to change the system. There have been attempts made by organizations and individuals to have the president elected by popular vote, but such attempts have not amounted to a national movement. It will require an amendment to the constitution to make the change, and the people generally are not enough interested to make a fight for an amendment. Besides, we have gotten along pretty well under present arrangements, and only the politicians have so far manifested any deep-seated desire for a change.

NOT ON ST. HELENA

It is said that the profiteering inhabitants of the Island of St. Helena would welcome Wilhelm Hohenzollern as a prisoner simply for what would be in it for them. But American and British opinion on the subject is bound to be opposed in what would be a direct affront to the French, who are sensitive about everything splendid in their history.

If Bonaparte was France's greatest soldier and statesman, he was England's greatest opponent. As far as he is concerned, the old bitterness of other days has passed away. Britons speak of the period in which Wellington and Nelson won fame as the "Napoleonic era," to such an extent that the personality of the man affected the imagination of the descendants of those who were his enemies.

After decades of royalist intrigue, the Third Republic became established safely on its democratic foundations. Its first enemy was Bismarck. Although imperialism was for long a menace to French institutions, the shrine of the race is today the Tomb of Napoleon. It is to France what Mount Vernon is to Americans and Westminster Abbey to the people of the British empire.

Just as it is impossible for a member of one of the allied nations to look down at the sarcophagus without emotion, so it would be impossible for him to set foot without a thrill on the island where Napoleon passed his last days.

It would be sacrilege to associate in any way, Wilhelm the Little with Napoleon the Great.

CORN IS EMPEROR NOW

Corn is more than king this year. Corn is emperor of American agriculture. Wheat, even with its unprecedented volume and the high price guaranteed by the government supported by a world demand, is expected to bring in a mere trifle of something like $2,577,000,000. The corn crop, though smaller than for many years, is said to be worth, on the basis of present market prices, no less than $4,770,000,000. Thus the corn nearly doubles the value of the wheat, and if prices continue their upward trend, may really do so, reaching a round five billions—incomparably more than any crop was ever worth in any country.

Before the war, farmers used to get 50 or 60 cents a bushel for their corn. In 1917, the price rose to the dazzling figure of 90 cents. Last year it jumped to $1.35. Now it is $2, and apparently going higher. It has risen much more, proportionately, than wheat.

Hereafter its importance will be more fully recognized. American farmers will plant more next year, instead of giving the preference to wheat, as they did this year.

To Save and to Have

Suppose you save 25 cents a day. That does not mean much to the average man. You won't miss it. Yet that 25c a day in ten years grows to nearly a thousand dollars. And the interest, which we pay you for saving your money, brings the total to over eleven hundred dollars. Think of what this means to you. Most of all it means that you will have formed the saving habit and will never be one of the nine men out of every ten who pass their last years penniless—in the poorhouse or dependent on others.

GREAT BENEFITS FROM METRICS, SAYS McADOO

War Director of Railroads Endorses Campaign for Metric Measures.

San Francisco, July 5.—William G. McAdoo, war-time Secretary of the Treasury and Director of Railroads, has given impetus to the campaign of the World Trade Club of San Francisco for the world-wide adoption of the metric units of weight and measure, by telegraphing to the club a strong statement of support.

"I heartily applaud World Trade Club's activities in favor of legislation providing for exclusive legality within the United States of America of decimal metric system of weights and measures," he writes. "Any legislation enacted would of course take due care of commercial interests during reasonable period of transition; and consequently alarm because of the change is wholly groundless. A very great stimulus indeed would be effected by our accepting the metric standards of industry, education and science in use throughout the world, whose prosperity and efficient service to so great an extent now squarely depend upon our producers. Shall we in this striking instance fail to adjust ourselves to the requirements of progress?"

Many similar statements of support are being received daily by the World Trade Club.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON AUGUST 10, 1919.

Topic: "Winning Others to Christ."
Acts 16:9-25.

REV. J. J. DICKEY.

The greatest privilege a Christian has is to win a soul. Carnegie medals are given to those who risk their own lives to save others, while God offers a crown of glory to those who save souls. The high esteem in which these medals are held gives a faint idea of how these crowns will be appreciated.

To save a man from drowning only protracts his life, in this world, a few years; to save a soul secures for him a residence in heaven instead of a bed in hell.

With such opportunities it is amazing that every one who has been saved is not an enthusiastic soul-winner! There is nothing so satisfying, nothing so profitable. One class think they cannot; another class are afraid to try, fearing failure. Every one can, you need not fear failure for the reward is for the faithful servant, not the successful servant. The greatest deterrent is the fear of men. The greatest antidote for this is the Holy Spirit. He transformed Peter from a moral coward to a moral hero. He will do this in any one. It was not till the apostles were baptized with the Holy Spirit that they became real soul winners. Before this selfish fear dominated them. Even after they did not count their lives too dear to hazard them in winning men to God. There must be complete abandon to be a soul winner. Methods of soul winning have never changed, and never will change, since God is the same and man is the same.

Go to the Bible for methods. First love for souls, then the truth presented to the mind, then the appeal made to the will. There is no end to the ways that love may be manifested, the truth presented and the will led to action. These are to be studied by the soul winner and inspired by the Holy Spirit. Where love burns in the hearts it will find ways to show itself in the conduct. "We must study to show ourselves approved unto God workmen that need not to be ashamed."

In the lesson today, Paul's love for souls prompted him to follow the leading of providence and the result was the gospel was introduced into Europe, and the western world is Christian today, while the eastern world is heathen or Mohamedan.

A woman of India lay in a Christian hospital. "How long can I live?" she asked of the physician. "About three months, if you stay here, where we can alleviate your pain," he said. "And if I go home?" "Two or three weeks." "But," said she, "I shall go home and tell the people of my village of Jesus." And she did. Here was love like Christ's love. That is what we all need, and must have it to be soul winners. God will give it to us if we will make a complete consecration, and ask in faith.

JAILER ESCAPES FROM OWN BASTILE; TAKES FOR WOODS

Whitesburg Jailer Confined in His Own Jail On Charge of Drunkenness, Escapes Into the Hills.

Whitesburg, Ky., August 7.—Pess Whitaker, jailer, author, bootlegger, rough rider and an inmate of his own jail since Saturday night, when he went on his third rampage on the streets of Whitesburg, attacking Deputy Jailer Wiley Jenkins, Sheriff Jas. Tolliver and County Judge Sam Collins, escaped from the county jail here during the "wee sma' hours" of last night and his whereabouts are as mysterious as if the earth had swallowed him up. Whitaker is said to have left a note saying that he gone to the "tall timbers."

When Deputy Sheriff F. F. Pendleton, who was detailed to act as jailer, went to the dingy little bastille this morning he was surprised to see the doors wide open and all the prisoners, including Whitaker, gone.

Whitaker was to have been tried today in the county court for his attack on his colleagues Saturday night. He carried a duplicate key to the main door of the jail and he is said to have told friends yesterday that last night would be his last in jail. He is also said to have expressed himself that he would love to "get even with the fellows whom he fought Saturday night."

A short time ago jailer Whitaker was tried on a charge of bootlegging and heavy fines were assessed against him. He was incarcerated in his own jail. After being locked up for a short time his attorneys appealed the case to the circuit court and Whitaker was liberated. Later he attacked former Police Judge Thomas Johnson near the L. & N. depot as a result of an old trouble. He was tried before Magistrate Tilden Wright and Whitaker was required to execute a $500 peace bond. His brothers became his bondsmen.

Several months ago he turned author, writing the book, "Life in the Kentucky Mountains," which met with a splendid sale.

In the Spanish-American war Whitaker saw active service. He merited the title of rough rider in his march up San Juan Hill with the late Theodore Roosevelt. Two years ago in the county election Whitaker had a number of opponents for the office of jailer, but he won by an unusually large majority.

AUTOMOBILES FOR 1920

Every American and foreign automobile manufacturer is now busily engaged with his designers on the final details for the manufacture and output of 1920 cars.

Some of the more advanced concerns already have the cars to be exhibited at the New York Automobile Show next January, well under way.

I am informed that several well-known manufacturers of passenger cars have arranged for both battery and magneto.

This is the ideal equipment, as each system has its particular function. The battery is fitted for operating the self-starter, lights and signals. The magneto is for ignition only. It creates a hot, fat spark at precisely the right time, gives no trouble, and is dependable under all circumstances.

The magneto, being an independent source of electric energy, relieves the battery of the exhausting strains connected with ignition, which, in the past were the cause of more than half its troubles.

UNCLE TED'S BED-TIME STORIES

Jack and Ruth had waited many days for the return of their Uncle Ted from Washington where he had been stationed since arriving in the United States from France and the Great War. They had only seen him for a few minutes when he landed from a great boat in New York City. There were hundreds of people there that day and Jack and Ruth who had never been in New York before, saw buildings "as tall as mountains and boats bigger than the biggest elephant ever."

Then they had to go right back home because Uncle Ted was still a soldier in the American army and under orders which took him to Washington. But now he was no longer a soldier and was coming home, so Jack and Ruth hoped, for a long time. They were at the window with their noses pressed tightly against the pane. Another came into the room and whispered, "Uncle Ted is home!" Jack and Ruth ran for the door and such a welcome home as they gave their Uncle Ted. Jack jumped on his back and with Ruth pulling at Uncle's coat, he made his way into the old front room where, before he went to war, he had told the children all kinds of fairy stories until the Sand-man called them to bed.

But Jack had grown-up during the war. He was quite a little man now and was anxious to know all about what was going on in the world. Uncle Ted was his hero and from Uncle Ted he must learn all about what the world is doing now that the war is over and people everywhere are thinking of peace. And the big men in Washington who make the laws! Jack wanted to know right away what they are doing about the Peace Treaty which all the nations must sign and agree to before peace really exists.

"Uncle Ted," asked Jack after they were all seated, Jack on his hero's lap and Ruth at their feet, "why is the Senate in Washington taking so long to agree to the Peace Treaty? Germany has agreed and most all other nations, so Dolly tells me."

"There are many persons, Jack," answered Uncle Ted. "First of all, when President Wilson signed the treaty in France as our representative, the treaty contained an agreement for a league of nations. This league of nations is, of course, still a part of the treaty. I haven't time tonight to tell you all about it. Just this much, though. If the United States agrees to the treaty with this plan to bring all the nations of the world together in a sort of club, it will mean that the United States will have to help fight the wars of many other countries."

"You mean," asked Jack, "that if Germany should fight England again, you would have to go back and fight whether you wanted to or not?"

"Not just that, Jack. I might or might not have to go but many American boys would have to go and many might be killed just because we had agreed to assist through this club plan for the many countries. For that reason many of the big Senators in Washington refuse to aid in the forming of this club. They say that George Washington, the Father of His Country, warned us not to form clubs with countries across the sea, because it would get the United States into a lot of trouble. They also say that if we join this world club, we shall lose our independence which you know from school history our fore-fathers gave up their lives to obtain in 1776 from England. We would be governed, so far as our relations with other countries, by a body of men representing the countries in this club and our Government would have to agree to do whatever these men decided. When the men representing each country in this club, meet to decide matters, each country would have one vote. Every member of this club would have to agree to whatever was decided. The United States would get one vote, Belgium would get one vote, but England controls so many countries, she would get six votes. One for England herself, one for Canada, one for Australia, one for South Africa, one for New Zealand, and one for India."

"Why, Uncle Ted," said Jack, "if we only get one vote and England gets only one vote, what is the difference? Canada and Australia are far away from England?"

"That is just what I want to explain to you. These other countries, such as Canada, and Australia which I counted in as making the six votes for England are all colonies of England just like Alaska and the Philippine Islands are part of the United States. When it came time to vote,

KENTUCKY CROPS NEED MORE RAIN JUST AT THIS TIME

Precipitation of Past Week Was Too Light in Most Sections to Give Permanent Relief.

Louisville, Ky., August 7.—The summary of weather and crop conditions in Kentucky, issued by the local weather bureau office for the week ending August 5, follows:

"Moderate to heavy rains occurred quite generally over the State during the week relieving the drought in most places, although there are some localities where the rainfall was too light to do more than check deterioration for a few days. More rain is needed at once to keep crops in good growing condition, especially since the high temperature of the last few days has dried up the moisture so rapidly. The cloudy cooler weather for a few days about the middle of the week was also beneficial in reviving vegetation."

Early corn on uplands has been damaged to some extent by drought, and will not make a full crop, but the later portion of this crop is doing well. It was well cultivated and in good condition to receive the rain. Early tobacco was badly "fired" in places, but the rain is causing the plants to spread and develop at the top. Later tobacco, although uneven in growth on account of the hot dry weather, was very much improved by the rains and is now making good progress. Pastures, gardens, and truck were also revived, but they need more rain at frequent intervals.

FAKE FINANCIAL JOURNAL IS UNCOVERED

Advertising Club Discloses Many Fakes in Advertising Over the Nation.

New York.—Thanks to the efforts of the Better Business Bureau (vigilance committee) of the advertising club at Detroit, says an announcement from the National Vigilance Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, of New York, "Financial Progress," a Detroit journal that had earmarks which resulted in an investigation, did not "progress" very far.

The advertising association has recently been waging a vigorous war against fake financial journals, because of the frequency with which such publications are used by dishonest promoters, who reprint "articles" from them for the purpose of deceiving the unwary investor.

While the National Vigilance Committee is working against fake journals in a national way, local vigilance committees, which co-operate with the national committee, are alert in their own fields, looking for such publications.

"There is no room for fake journalism in any field, and certainly not in the financial field," says Merle Sidenber, chairman of the National Vigilance Committee.

He said that financial institutions and others interested in the committee's fight against fraud should immediately communicate with the Associated Advertising Clubs (110 W. 40th St., New York City) when they have reason to believe that a journal is a fake, or is selling "write ups" to them. They would all vote with their Mother country and in that way they could, by their votes, make the United States share their troubles and wars whether the United States wanted to or not.

"Wouldn't that be a bad thing for the United States?" spoke up Ruth. "It would be a very bad thing for the United States to join this league or world club, and that is why, Jack, the big Senators in Washington are refusing to help make the United States join. President Wilson wants us to join no matter what it means to us but the Senate must decide because our laws say so, and most all the Senators say that we will not join this club and send our soldiers all over the world to risk their lives fighting the battles for other people. Now it's bed-time and I am tired from my trip. Next week I shall you about another reason why the Senate does not like the peace treaty which our President signed in France. It is all about China and sounds like a fairy tale with a big dragon and everything."

AUTO RACES SCHEDULED TO OFFER "RED BLOODED" SPORT AT COMING FAIR

American sports are usually of a vigorous, "red blooded" variety, and nothing appeals to the sons and daughters of "Uncle Sam" like a contest which calls for daring, skill and speed, and in no game will be found a more perfect embodiment of these assets than in automobile racing of a type to be featured at the State Fair which will be held in Louisville the week of September 8-13.

During the two final days of the State Fair, racing events will be staged on the fine oval of the race track in front of the grand stand and many of the best-known stars of American and foreign tracks will go after established records with a savagery which is certain to result in surprising changes in the sport-records. During the 1918 campaign many established records were wiped out by Sig Rughdahl, Fred Horey, Jules Ellingboe, Leon Duray, Ray Lampkin and others and it is expected that the contests this year will develop new points and bring the automobile features into spectacular promise as one of the most delightful, stirring and sensational offerings of the entire celebration.

Hughdahl, who was a sensation last year with his famous Flat Six, has practically rebuilt his car and it is said to be a genuine whirlwind now. As an example of its going quality it may be said that on last Labor Day at Lincoln, Neb., Hughdahl traveled a mile in 1.01.60 and two miles in 2.02.80, the old records being beaten several seconds in each instance. Horey has a new mount about which he is said to be secretive and in which he promises to confound his rivals.

Ellingboe remains faithful to his famous "Wild-cat" and will tool this wonder at the fair. Duray has jumped to the Case racing outfit in place of George Clark, and Lambkin, who has sold his "Sun-Ray," will blossom out with an American instead of a foreign product.

REDUCED RATES ON ALL RAILROADS

The State Fair management is pleased to announce that a special railroad excursion rate has been secured from the Southern Passenger Traffic Committee and that from all points in Kentucky, and from Cincinnati, O., and Jellico, Tenn., one and one-half fare will be charged for the round trip where the fare amounts to 25 cents or over. Tickets will be sold from September 6 to 12, inclusive, and for trains which are scheduled to arrive in Louisville before noon of September 13, with a final limit of September 15.

The colossal total of $110,000.00 is listed by the various premiums quoted in the 1919 Kentucky State Fair catalogs which are now off the press and under process of distribution in Kentucky and throughout various sections of the country. Keen interest will undoubtedly be aroused among the farmers and stock breeders of the Commonwealth by the splendid awards offered and the result is certain to be one of the most brilliant and successful fairs ever held in this country.

Bankers and others interested in legitimate investments, it is announced at the offices of the advertising association here, are keenly interested in the forthcoming world convention of advertising, to be held in New Orleans, Sept. 21 to 25, because one of the big general sessions is to be devoted to a discussion of how further to advance the movement against fakers who use advertising to promote their business, and especially to those who operate in the field of finance.

George H. King, prop., grocery 615 E. Second St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Chandler's Drug Store and I have been greatly benefited by them. Sometimes the kidney secretions have been irregular in passage. I have suffered severely with aches through the small of my back. SCIENTIFIC SCORING FOR "BABY" AT FAIR

Mothers of all kinds and classes would rise up in wrath should any one assert that pigs or pups were of more importance than her own precious offspring, but until recent years that was exactly the attitude taken by the parthenhood of the country.

Great care and scientific study was devoted to the upbringing, development and breeding of stock because it was commercially productive, but baby was allowed to imitate Topsy and "jes grow." In consequence many a little body developed wrongly, ill and evils hidden from the unskilled eye waxed and grew apace and many a man or woman faced life heavily handicapped by their parents' lack of vision.

With the crusade inaugurated by Mrs. Frank De Garro, in 1908 at the Mothers' Health Congress of the

Louisiana State Fair began, however, a most important movement to give to the human infant the same scientific study that had been for years accorded to the animals and over the country swept the splendid movement which inaugurated Babies' Health Contests and Congresses at State and County Fairs and Expositions. Kentucky adopted the innovation in 1913 and instituted the first Babies' Health Contest that year at the Kentucky State Fair. The idea met with the instant approval of rural and city mothers and the contest was one of the most vital and interesting features of the entire exhibition. It has grown in interest from season to season and will again be one of the big features of the fair in September 8-13. MANCHESTER MILL MAN LEAVES FAMILY AND DEBTS

Edward Newcomer, Head of Manchester Saw Mill Company, Leaves Town Deserting Family and Leaving Debts.

The Manchester (O.) Signal says: Ed Newcomer and his family came to Manchester several months ago from someplace. He left here Thursday without notifying his family or creditors. His whereabouts is unknown to those interested.

On last Thursday he hired an automobile from the Central Livery Co. as he was accustomed to do when going around the neighborhood in search of timber. He did not say where he was going, but after he was well on the way, informed the driver he was going to Cincinnati.

After reaching the city he informed the driver he would be ready to start back at 9 o'clock Friday morning. The driver waited until 2 o'clock and then started home alone. Mr. Newcomer not having returned.

With local aid he built and equipped a sawmill and proved to be an expert timber man. He left his wife and children without means. His aged father who is visiting the family is downcast but hopes for the return of his son to untangle the financial affairs of the sawmill property.

He has shown himself ungrateful to his friends but if he would return he would relieve his family of embarrassment and have a chance to square himself with those concerned.

Estimates of the sum of money he carried vary, but is supposed to be in the neighborhood of $1000.

Constable James McNamara is acting Police Sergeant while Sergeant Mackey is taking his annual ten days' vacation and this is enough to know that the police station will be well handled.

ASSOCIATION OF GROCERS AND BUTCHERS MAKE STATEMENT

Putting Facts Directly Before Public In Answer to Criticism They Claim Unjust.

Feeling that the Chamber of Commerce and the Grocers Association have been unjustly criticized by some vaguely informed correspondent, President Cummins of the Maysville Retail Grocers and Butchers Association has seen fit to name a committee to properly inform the public as to the exact status of affairs. The reports of the committee follows:

The Maysville Chamber of Commerce some two years ago, in response to a unanimous appeal of the grocers, members of the organization, called together the grocers of the city of Maysville to give them the long desired opportunity to form an organization for bettering their own interests. The officers felt then, as they do now, that the citizens of Mason county would benefit in the organization of the Grocers' Association, for the consumer finally benefits when the merchant becomes a better business man. Many of the grocers have improved their knowledge of business affairs by coming in closer relation with their fellow grocers.

The selfish citizen that desires a grocer to sell him goods on a losing margin of profit has no place in a progressive city like Maysville. If the unjust criticism comes from such a citizen, we have no answer to make, except that he belongs in a city headed towards destruction. On every side and from every city that is stepping forward, the spirit of unselfishness is the dominant and moving spirit upon which it is advancing.

To the man or woman of unselfish and progressive characteristics we believe we can offer an intelligent answer for this unjust criticism to which we have been subjected. We don't mean to offer the following as an excuse for some undesirable practices that may have been perpetrated by some of our members, over whose affairs we have no direct control, for the citizens of Mason county know that in every organization some members are admitted, whose business transactions do not always meet with the approval of the other members. For that reason we feel that individuals should be blamed rather than organizations and the objectors should be men enough to direct their complaints to the direction in which they belong.

In answer to the so called Gouge to which the consumers of the city of Maysville and Mason county have been subjected, we would like to make the following reply:

The grocers and butchers must do three things or go out of business:

1. Make a living profit.
2. Keep a sufficient stock to supply demands.
3. Give the service demanded by their customers.

If there is to be no profit in business the grocer and butcher would be fools to continue.

Keeping his stock complete often causes the merchant to pay high prices in times of scarcity. He is then compelled to charge accordingly. Recently a report was published saying a local grocer not a member of the Gougers Union had a car of sugar due which would cost him $8.71 f. o. b. Maysville. This report was either an error or a lie. At the time this report was given out the best price obtainable on the New York market was given $8.82 which with freight rate added would make the price $9.21½ f. o. b. Maysville. The same day this price was quoted, a local wholesaler received a car of sugar costing $13.06 per hundred f. o. b. Maysville. The question is, would the people have preferred doing without sugar entirely, to paying 14c to 15c for it? The dealer referred to is still waiting for that 10c sugar. Would the berries have waited had other dealers refused to buy at 13c?

Just one more word about the same suckers for free advertising. Any man who sells soap at 8c a bar and makes 2½c is making a profit of over 54%.

Everybody knows that green goods are high, but that very fact makes the chance for loss to the dealer much greater. High prices make fewer sales, fewer sales mean greater loss from spoilage, and the average grocer handles green vegetables and fruits merely as an accommodation to his customers, often at a loss.

Now just a word in regard to the Grocers and Butchers Association. Contrary to the opinion being expressed this is not an organization of thieves and cut throats. They have fed many a family all winter and been forced to charge the account to "profit and loss". Furthermore the average grocer or butcher who has accumulated a portion of this world's goods has done it in most cases by investments outside of his own business. Any how many of the knackers let their grocery bills run a year, compelling the grocer to borrow money to meet his bills?

Just a word about our friend and fellow grocer, Mr. Busby. He was invited to join the Association as every other grocer in the city and his failure to become a member has in no way harmed the organization or benefited him. His statement that the people were being overcharged for Campbell's Pork and Beans leads us to question his business integrity. A school child can calculate the profit he is making on an article listed at $1.50 a dozen wholesale which he is selling for 12½c a can.

We understand that his 10c sugar has not yet arrived and he is at present charging 14c. We might add that the people of Maysville are buying sugar 2c cheaper per pound than it could be sold to a Cincinnati jobber. Some of the critics may also fail to have the information that the estimated decrease in the world's sugar production this year is about 900,000 long tons.

Soap is continuing to advance and the grocer that bought a large quantity some time ago, can undersell those buying from week to week.

With the exception of Kroger, Voss and other cash stores in Cincinnati, Maysville prices are on a par with most cities even of greater population.

In regard to the tomato incident referred to in a recent issue of the Independent, will say, that the farmer recognized that she must get the best price possible for her tomatoes or lose the entire amount. We have information of another farmer that offered to retail tomatoes, to one of the ladies of Maysville at 10c a pound, the same day, and they were a very poor quality. This same lady had just purchased a quantity of good tomatoes from one of the grocers at 15c per pound.

The Grocers Association have had nothing to do with regulating the prices. We challenge any citizen to prove that the Grocers Association sets prices to its members.

A local grocer received the following communication from a Cincinnati wholesaler:

"Supplementing our talk over the phone, would say there is nothing in the present situation to condemn any one for getting what he can for his sugar. Supply and demand settle prices always where there is no collusion between several parties, which does not exist in the sugar situation. An article becomes scarce, and higher prices result. You cannot prevent this any more than you can change the law of gravitation. Of course in war times, all natural laws have to be set aside for the general good. The Constitution does not allow such restriction in peace times. It would take a constitutional amendment before the Government could do such a thing, and it would be a step toward paternalism, if not socialism, which the best people in the country do not approve especially after what we have seen of the results of Government management of railroads, telephones coal, etc., during the war. Most of the talk in the papers emanates from politicians, who are seeking their own advancement, and really do not care as much for the people's interest as you or I do. You and I would rather see 4c sugar than 13c sugar, but we have to accept conditions as they are and do the best conscientiously that we can."

Going back to the origin of the Grocers Association, we can't refrain from calling to your mind the splendid spirit exemplified by the Grocers Association and the Grocers as individuals in helping comply with the desires of the government. We are sure that were our esteemed friend Hon. W. D. Cochran here now, he would very severely word lash the critics of the Grocers Association and some of the prominent grocers. He has reiterated time and again the fact that the Grocers Association was invaluable to him in performing his duties as Food Administrator for Mason county and compensated the grocers of the county almost to a man for the splendid patriotic spirit that they exemplified. Taken as a whole, we don't believe there is a more public spirited body of men, willing to do anything they can, for the advancement of Mason county, than the Maysville Retail Grocers and Butchers Association.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

Bytaking Friend's Adviceand Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?'"

"So I did, and through it I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as though I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss CORA LEE HALL, West Plains, Mo.

"Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this great remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it?"
